

Volume Seven – Issues. Supplement And Special Edition Page Numbers

|      |                 |               |      |            |                    |
|------|-----------------|---------------|------|------------|--------------------|
| 2020 | No 1            | May pp1-24    | 2020 | No 6       | November pp25-48   |
| 2021 | No              | May pp49-72   | 2021 | No 7       | November pp73-96   |
| 2022 | No 3            | May pp97-120  | 2022 | No 8       | November pp121-144 |
| 2023 | No 4            | May pp`45-168 | 2023 | No 9       | November pp169-192 |
| 2024 | No 5            | May pp192-216 | 2024 | No 10      | November pp217-240 |
|      | Special Edition | 1-32          |      | Supplement | pp1-32             |
|      | Index           | To be added   |      |            |                    |

Suffixes In This Index

D - detailed drawing(s)
M - track diagrams or detailed map(s)
P - photograph(s) including documents
S – supplement
SE- special edition

Author Index

A

Anon

|                                                                                      |            |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| B & M Notes: No More Sunday Trains And A Problem Platform (Pontsara 1868             | 226        |
| Burry Port & Gwendraeth Valley Railway No 6 Gwendraeth                        | 70-71D     |
| Barry Railway D Class 0-8-0                                                          | 71P        |
| Cambrian Railways 2-4-0T Small Side Tank Class                                       | 164DP      |
| Cardiff Railway Class 14 Locomotives As Built And As Rebuilt By The GWR              | 12-13D     |
| George Bush And The Taff Vale Railway                                                | 155        |
| Just The Ticket (Cambrian Railways 1899                                              | 47         |
| Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway And Port Talbot Railway 10 Ton Three Plank Open Wagons | 47D        |
| Observations As To New Railways On The Port Talbot Estate By T.M. Franklin           | 226        |
| Pwllheli West Frame Box                                                              | 193P, 216P |
| Rhymney Jottings: Railway Accident Near Caerphilly (1884)                            | 167        |
| Royal Visit To Wales In 1896 (Cambrian Railways)                                     | 72         |
| Rumney Railway Notice Of Conversion To Edge-Rail (1854)                              | 240P       |
| Spies In The Rhondda? (1911 espionage scare)                                         | 237        |
| The Barry Bit: An Unlikely Liaison (1908 running powers talks with Rhymney Railway)  | 190        |
| The Barry Bit: Boot Money On The Barry                                               | 24         |
| The Barry Bit: Commuting To The Rhondda?                                             | 165        |
| The Barry Bit: Motor Car Service                                                     | 143        |
| The Barry Bit: Taff Wells Viaduct                                                    | 97P        |
| Taff Vale Titbits; On From From Cowbridge To Aberthaw                                | 120        |

|                                                                                     |                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| The Navigation Station Dispute (TVR see Vol 6/2)                                    | 215                     |
| The TVR A Smoke Free Zone ?                                                         | 47                      |
| Transport For Wales Class 231 Diesel Electric Multiple Units                        | 169P                    |
| Treherbert MPD GWR/British Railways                                                 | 145P, 192P              |
| Unfortunate Accidents (Cardiff Railway)                                             | 230                     |
| Vale Of Neath Vicissitudes                                                          | 160-161                 |
| We Don't Want Your Docks (Cardiff Railway, Cardiff Council and Cardiff Docks, 1906) | 240                     |
| W M & CQ R Locomotive No 3                                                          | 203-204D                |
| Ab Elis Rhys                                                                 |                         |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                 | 99-111MP, 144, 168, 190 |

B

Bell Stephen

|                                    |        |
|------------------------------------|--------|
| Cambrian Railways Loco Coal I 1904 | 22-24P |
|------------------------------------|--------|

Bryn Jones Rhobat

|                                     |         |
|-------------------------------------|---------|
| A Motor Car Mystery (The Barry Bit) | 74P, 90 |
|-------------------------------------|---------|

Bushby John

|                                                                                                                                  |                      |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|
| A Map, A Family Of Engineers And An Ambitious Might Have Been (Yockney family and the London & South Wales Railway project etc.) | 219-225P             |
| Americans At Duffryn Isaf: A Forgotten Wartime Story (US Army Locomotives Store)                                                 | 183-189MP, 215-216   |
| Cambrian Railways 15 Ton Wagons                                                                                                  | 67D, 72              |
| Going Out By Train (Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway handbills)                                                                     | 200P                 |
| More Tales From Porthkerry (Henry Gethin Lewis)                                                                                  | 69-70                |
| Newport Ebbw Junction GWR Wednesday 15 March 1944 (US Army locomotive shops)                                                     | 209-215MP, 240       |
| Fernhill Collieries Ltd And The Great Western Railway 1924-1930: A Difficult relationship                                        |                      |
| In Dificult Times Parts 1 and 2                                                                                                  | 75-81MP and 114-119P |
| The Barry Railway's Management Circa 1906 And 1907 Parts 2 and 3 Part 3 (see Vol VI/10)                                          | 14-17P and 33-38MP   |
| The Last Days Of The Alexandra, (Newport & South Wales) Docks & Railway                                                          | 142, 168             |
| Tail Traffic: Three Companies (Brymbo)                                                                                           | 190                  |
| Tail Traffic: US Locomotives In Wales                                                                                            | 190-191              |
| USATC S160 In Bridgend Area 1943-1944                                                                                            | 49P                  |
| Watkin In Wales (Sir Edward Watkin)                                                                                              | 160, 192             |

C

Caston Ray

|                                                              |               |
|--------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|
| Don't You Know There's A War On (Severn Tunnel Junction WW2) | 178-179P, 216 |
| More On Marchwiel (see Vol VI/10)                            | 38D           |
| Railway accident at Bassaleg                                 | 10P           |
| Railway fatalities at Abermule, 1907                         | 5-9MP         |
| Return To Marchwiel                                          | 88-90MP       |
| The Birth, Life And Death Of Barry Junction (B & M)          | 206-208P, 240 |

Coggan Ifor

|                                                    |         |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------|
| A Brecon & Merthyr Survivor (Invoice) Tail Traffic | 96, 120 |
|----------------------------------------------------|---------|

Connop Price Martin

|                                               |                |
|-----------------------------------------------|----------------|
| A Few Trips To Tintern                        | 42-47MP        |
| Bombarded In Bedlinog And Drenched In Dowlais | 91-96MP 120    |
| The RCTS Gwent Railtour 23 June 1973          | 238-239P       |
| The Wrexham, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway   | 121, 123-135MP |

Couthurst Richard

|                                                                                                     |                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Tail Traffic: Dare Valley and Gamlyn Viaducts                                                       | 144                   |
| Cooke Tony and Richard Maud                                                                  |                       |
| The Cylla Branch Revisited (see Vol V/4)                                                            | 162-164M              |
| D                                                                                            |                       |
| David Jonathan                                                                               |                       |
| A Months Passengers At Newton (Montgomeryshire. 1947)                                               | 143                   |
| Introducing The GWR Motor Economic System Of Maintenance Between Ynysygeinon Jct And Brecon Station | 39-42MP               |
| Life After Death For Welsh And GWR Wagons (docks internal use)                                      | 231-234P              |
| Rhymney Railway 15 Ton Mineral Wagon Model                                                          | 72P                   |
| Tail Traffic: Services Between The TVR And The GWR In Cardiff (see also Vol VI/8)                   | 48                    |
| The Cambrian And The 1911 Investiture                                                               | 180-181P              |
| H                                                                                            |                       |
| Humpage Adrian                                                                               |                       |
| A Rhymney Train At Pontlottyn                                                                       | 165P                  |
| Central Wales 150 th Anniversary Special Edition: The LNWR Route To Swansea              | SEMP 1-32             |
| Humble Keith                                                                                        |                       |
| Tail Traffic\; Drenched In Dowlais                                                                  | 120                   |
| J                                                                                            |                       |
| Jacobs Caroline                                                                              |                       |
| Angus Lewis Photographer: Six Railways To Merthyr                                                   | 151P                  |
| J.L.D.                                                                                       |                       |
| Taff Vale Viaduct Over The GWR (Cardiff)                                                            | 72                    |
| Jones Gareth                                                                                 |                       |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                            | 152-153P              |
| The Failure Of The First Open Access Passenger Service In Wales (Wrexham & Shropshire Railway)      | 227-230               |
| Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation                                                      | 25P, 27-32MP, 70, 215 |
| M                                                                                            |                       |
| McCarthy Terry                                                                               |                       |
| The Dare Valley And Gamelyyn Viaducts                                                               | 62-66MP               |
| The Line: Passenger Services On The Dare Valley Branch                                              | 82-88MP 215-216       |
| Maud Richard                                                                                 |                       |
| Joseph Jemkins And The Manchester & Milford Railway                                                 | 167                   |
| Tail Traffic: Brymbo                                                                                | 144                   |
| Tail Ftraffic: Cymmer Viaduct                                                                       | 72, 143               |
| Tail Traffic: Yet More On Marchwiell                                                                | 143-144               |
| The Arrival Of The Railway In Corwen (See Vol V/6)                                                  | 166, 191-192          |
| The Oswestry, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway                                                        | 166-167               |
| Maud Richard and Cooke Tony                                                                  |                       |
| The Cylla Branch Revisited (see also Vol V/4)                                                       | 162-164M              |
| Miles Stephen                                                                                |                       |
| Railway accident at Ogmore Vale (1963)                                                              | 9-10P                 |
| Morgan Jeff                                                                                  |                       |
| A Mysterious Locomotive (Cardiff General, GWR)                                                      | 24P, 48               |
| Rhymney Railway locomotive shed at Taff Wells                                                       | 1P                    |
| The 1930s Rebuilding Of Cardiff General Station                                                     | 1-32SDMP              |
| N                                                                                            |                       |
| Nichols Gerry                                                                                |                       |
| Biographical Notes On The Brecon & Merthyr Locomotive Depratment                                    | 59-61P                |

|                                                                           |                  |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|
| George Bush 1810 – 1841                                                   | 154-155P 215     |
| Taff Vale Railway Organisation In 1841                                    | 138-142DM        |
| P                                                                  |                  |
| Parsons Simon                                                      |                  |
| Joseph Jenkins And The Manchester & Milford Railway                       | 133-136 167      |
| Parry David                                                        |                  |
| A note on the Plas Madoc branch                                           | 3-5 MP           |
| Phillips Alistair                                                  |                  |
| Traffic At Dowais (British Railways era)                                  | 135              |
| Penny Brian                                                        |                  |
| American Locomotives In South Wales (Tail Traffic)                        | 96, 168          |
| Poole Brian                                                        |                  |
| Eiluned Lewis And The Railway Bridge (Newton, Montgomeryshire/Powys)      | 136-137MP        |
| Maintaining Pont Morben (Bridge)                                          | 156-159P         |
| Newton Station And Ron Jones                                              | 111-113P 167-168 |
| Recollections Of A Cambrian Railwayman (John Gwilt)                       | 195-199P         |
| R                                                                  |                  |
| Rees Richard                                                       |                  |
| Water for London from Wales of course (LNWR)                              | 18-21MP          |
| Rhodes Alan                                                        |                  |
| Newton Station And Ron Jones                                              | 167-168          |
| Tail Traffic: The O E & W Described                                       | 190              |
| Rowson Stephen                                                     |                  |
| Tail Traffic: On From Cowbridge To Aberthaw (TVR)                         | 120              |
| Three Royal Journeys (Aberystwyth 1896, Cardiff 1924 and Llanrindod 1953) | 201-202P         |
| Unveiling The Barry War Memorial 31 October 1922                          | 236-237P         |
| Rowson Stephen and Vincent Steve                                   |                  |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR                                             | 171-174MP        |
| S                                                                  |                  |
| Scott Jim                                                          |                  |
| Barmouth Bridge New Girders 1 August 2024                                 | 207P             |
| Shelton Philip                                                     |                  |
| Tail Traffic: Watkin In Wales                                             | 192              |
| Shill Martin                                                       |                  |
| Just The Ticket (Cambrian Railways 1899                                   | 47               |
| Simmonds Robin                                                     |                  |
| Coal For Milford Haven                                                    | 51-58MP          |
| Cymmer Viaduct (see Vol VI)                                               | 168              |
| Smith Hugh                                                         |                  |
| Tail Traffic: A Mysterious Locomotive                                     | 48               |
| Southern Dave                                                      |                  |
| Last Train From Brymbo                                                    | 147-150P         |
| When Bala Had A Railway                                                   | 175-177P, 216    |
| Studley David                                                      |                  |
| A Brecon & Methyr Invoice Survivor                                        | 68P. 96, 120     |
| T                                                                  |                  |
| Taylor Francis                                                     |                  |
| Cambrian Coast Steam (GWR period)                                         | 234-135P         |
| Tennant Chris                                                      |                  |
| Tail Traffic: Two Trips To Brymbo                                         | 168, 190         |
| V                                                                  |                  |
| Vincent Steve and Rowson Stephen                                   |                  |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR                                             | 171-174MP        |

W

Warrington Alastair

Tail Traffic: Cymmer Viaduct (see also Vol VI/10) 48, 72

Watts David Gwyn

Working On The Railway In The 1950s (Bridgend) 17

Subject Index

A

Accidents

Railway accident at Bassaleg 10P
Railway accident at Ogmore Vale (1963) 9-10P
Railway fatalities at Abermule, 1907 5-9MP
Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation 25P, 27-32MP, 70, 215
Rhymeny Jottings: Railway Accident Near
Caerphilly (1884) 167
Unfortunate Accidents (Cardiff Railway) 230

B

Barry Railway

See Railway Companies

Bridges And Viaducts

Barmouth Bridge New Girders 1 August 2024 207P
Central Wales 150th Anniversary Special Edition 1-32SE
Cymmer Viaduct: Tail Traffic (see Vol VI/10) 48,, 72 143
Eiluned Lewis And The Railway Bridge (Newton,
Mongomeryshire/Powys) 136-137MP
Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation 25P, 27-32MP, 70, 215
Taff Vale Viaduct Over The GWR (Cardiff
Network Rail) 72
Taff Wells Viaduct 97P
The Dare Valley And Gamelynn Viaducts 62-66MP, 144

Brecon & Merthyr Railway

See Railway Companies

British Railways/British Rail

See Nationalisation

Burry Port & Gwendraeth Valley Railway

Nationalisation And Franchises

C

Cambrian Railways

See Railway Companies

Cardiff Railway

See Railway Companies

Carriages And Coaching Stock Excluding Multiple Units And Motor Cars Etc.

See Rolling Stock

Railway Engineers (Non-Locomotive)

Bush George 154-155P, 215

Yockney Family (Three Generations) 219-225P

Collieries (Private And State Ownership)

Aberaman 62
Aberpwrsgwm 153
Bala 176-177P, 216
Blaenrhondda aka North Dunraven 75-81MP, 114-119P
Bwllfa Dare 64
Coed Ely 153
Cwmaman 62-64
Fernhill (Inc, Blaenrhondda) 75-81MP, 114-119P
Fochriw 67
Frorchneal 64
Merthyr Dare 62
Plas Madoc 3-5MP
Risca 153

Colliery Companies (Inc. Iron And Steel

Companies Owned Collieries

American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)

(Vale of Neath Colliery Co)

152-153P

A Brecon & Methyr Invoice Survivor (Dowlais Iron Co)

68P, 96, 120

Fernhill Collieries Ltd And The Great Western

Railway 1924-1930: Parts 1 and 2

75-81MP, 114-119P

Spies In The Rhondda? (1911 espionage scare)

237

The Cylla Branch Revisited (see Vol V/4)

162-164M

Contractors And Construction Etc.

Joseph Jenkins And The Manchester & Milford Railway

133-136, 167

Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation

25P, 27-32MP,, 70 215

Yockney Dynasty (Three Generations)

219-225P

Coal Traffic

Cambrian Railways Loco Coal In 1904

22-24P

Coal For Milford Haven

51-58MP

Fernhill Collieries Ltd And The Great Western

Railway 1924-1930: Parts 1 and 2

75-81MP, 114-119P

The Cylla Branch Revisited (see Vol V/4)

162-164M

D

Docks (Non-Railway Owned)

American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)

152-153P

(Llanelly Harbour Trust)

Coal For Milford Haven

51-58MP

Docks (Railway Owned)

Welsh And GWR Wagons Docks Internal use

231-234P

The Last Days Of The Alexandra, (Newport &

South Wales) Docks & Railway

142, 168

Unfortunate Accidents (Cardiff Railway)

230

We Don't Want Your Docks (Cardiff Railway And

240

Cardiff City Council 1906)

Documents

A Map, A Family Of Engineers And An

Ambitious Might Have Been (Yockney family and the London & South Wales Railway project)

219-225MP

A Brecon & Methyr Invoice Survivor

68P, 96 120

The Last Days Of The Alexandra, (Newport &

South Wales) Docks & Railway

142, 168

Drawings

Burry Port & Gwendraeth Valley Railway

70-71D

No 6 Gwendraeth

Cambrian Railways 15 Ton Wagons

67D and 72

Cardiff Railway Class 14 Locomotives As

Built And As Rebuilt By The GWR

12-13D

Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway And

Port Talbot Railway 10 Ton Three Plank

Open Wagons

47D

The 1930s Rebuilding Of Cardiff General Station

1-32SDMP

E

Espionage

Spies In The Rhondda? (1911 espionage scare)

237

Excursions And Special Workings (See

Also Royal Journeys)

Bombarded In Bedlinog And Drenched In

Dowlais

91-96MP, 120

Cymmer Viaduct: Tail Traffic (see Vol VI/10)

48, 72, 143

Going Out By Train (Rhondda & Swansea Bay

Railway handbills)

200P

The Line: Passenger Services On The Dare Valley

Branch

82-88MP, 215-216

|                                                                                                    |                                              |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| The Dare Valley And Gamelynn Viaducts                                                              | 62-66MP                                      |
| The RCTS Gwent Railtour 23 June 1973                                                               | 238-239P                                     |
| F                                                                                           |                                              |
| Fares                                                                                       |                                              |
| See Tickets And Fares                                                                              |                                              |
| Forward                                                                                     | 2, 26, 50, 74, 98, 122, 146, 170,194 218 |
| G                                                                                           |                                              |
| Great Western Railway                                                                       |                                              |
| See Railway Companies                                                                              |                                              |
| I                                                                                           |                                              |
| Iron And Steel Companies (Inc. Nationalisation)                                             |                                              |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                           | 152-153P                                     |
| (Whitehead Iron & Steel Co, Newport)                                                               |                                              |
| A Brecon & Methyr Invoice Survivor (Dowlais Iron Co)                                               | 68P,96,120                                   |
| Last Train From Brymbo                                                                             | 147-150P                                     |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                                | 99-111MP, 144,168,190                        |
| L                                                                                           |                                              |
| Locomotive Departments                                                                      |                                              |
| Biographical Notes On The Brecon & Merthyr LocomotiveDepartment                                | 59-61P                                       |
| Taff Vale Railway Organisation In 1841                                                             | 138-142DM                                    |
| Locomotives Industrial Non-Steam                                                            |                                              |
| Last Train From Brymbo                                                                             | 147-150P                                     |
| Locomotives Industrial Steam                                                                |                                              |
| A Mysterious Locomotive (Cardiff Generalpre-1939)                                              | 24P, 48                                      |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                           | 152-153P                                     |
| Coal To Milford Haven (Milford Dock Co)                                                            | 51-58MP                                      |
| Locomotives Military                                                                        |                                              |
| Americans At Duffryn Isaf: A Forgotten                                                             |                                              |
| War-time Story (US Army Locomotives Store)                                                         | 183-189MP, 215-216                           |
| Newport Ebbw Junction US Army locomotive shops)                                                    | 209-215P 240                                 |
| US Locomotives In South Wales                                                                      | 168                                          |
| Tail Traffic: US Locomotives In Wales                                                              | 190-191                                      |
| USATC S160 In Bridgend Area 1943-1944                                                              | 49P, 96                                      |
| Locomotives Railways Owned (Steam Including Rail Motors ButNot Industrial Or Military) |                                              |
| Cambrian Coast Steam (GWR period)                                                                  | 234-135P                                     |
| A Motor Car Mystery (The Barry Bit)                                                                | 74P and 90                                   |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                           | 152-153P                                     |
| Barry Railway D Class 0-8-0                                                                        | 71P                                          |
| Burry Port & Gwendraeth Valley Railway                                                             | 70-71D                                       |
| No 6 Gwendraeth                                                                             |                                              |
| Cambrian Railways 2-4-0T Small Side Tank Class                                                     | 164DP                                        |
| Cardiff Railway Class 14 Locomotives AsBuilt And As Rebuilt By The GWR                         | 12-13D                                       |
| Central Wales 150 th Anniversary Special Edition:                                       |                                              |
| The LNWR Route To Swansea                                                                          | 1-32SEMP                                     |
| The Barry Bit: Motor Car Service                                                                   | 143                                          |
| Taff Vale Railway Organisation In 1841                                                             | 138-142DM                                    |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR (Motor Cars Etc)                                                     | 171-174MP                                    |
| W M & CQ R Locomotive No 3                                                                         | 203-204D                                     |
| Locomotive Sheds/Motive Power Depots                                                        |                                              |
| Newport Ebbw Junction GWR Wednesday 15March 1944 (US Army locomotive shops)                    | 209-215P 240                                 |
| Rhymney Railway locomotive shed at Taff Wells                                                      | 1P                                           |
| Treherbert MPD GWR/British Railways                                                                | 145P, 192                                    |

London & North Western Railway

See Railway Companies

London Midland & Scottish Railway

See Railway Companies

M

Manchester & Milford Railway

See Railway Companies

Military Railways (Inc. Royal Ordnance Plants)

More On Marchwiel (see Vol VI/10)

38D and 48P

Newport Ebbw Junction GWR (US Army locomotive shops)

209-215P 240

Return To Marchwiel

88-90MP

Tail Traffic: Yet More On Marchwiel

143-144

Tail Traffic: US Locomotives In Wales

190-191

USATC S160 In Bridgend Area 1943-1944

49P, 96

Modelling And Models

Cambrian Railways Brakevan

169P

Rhymney Railway 15 Ton Mineral Wagon

72P

Multiple Units (Diesel, Diesel Electric)

The RCTS Gwent Railtour 23 June 1973

238-239P

Transport For Wales Class 231 Diesel Electric

169P

N

Nationalisation (British Railways/British Rail 1948-1997)

A Few Trips To Tintern

42-47MP

Cymmer Viaduct: Tail Traffic (see Vol 6/10)

48, 72, 143

Last Train From Brymbo

147-150P

Newton Station And Ron Jones

111-113P 167-168

Railway Accident at Bassaleg

10P

Railway Accident at Ogmere Vale (1963)

Recollections Of A Cmmrian Railwayman (John Gwilt )

195-199P

Taff Wells Viaduct

97P

Three Royal Journeys (Llanrindod 1953)

201-202P

Traffic At Dowais (British Railways era)

135

Treherbert MPD GWR/British Railways

145P, 192

The Oswestry, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway

166-167

The Wrexham, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway

121, 123-135MP 190

Two Trips To Brymbo

99-111MP, 144, 168, 190

Last Train From Brymbo

147-150P

When Bala Had A Railway

175-177P, 216

Working On The Railway In The 1950s (Bridgend)

17

Network Rail

Barmouth Bridge New Girders 1 August 2024

207P

Maintaining Pont Morben (Bridge)

156-159P

Pwllheli West Frame Box

193P and 216P

Taff Vale Viaduct Over The GWR (Cardiff)

72

P

Personalities

Angus Lewis Photographer: Six Railways To Merthyr

151P

Biographical Notes On The Brecon & Merthyr Locomotive

59-61P

Department

Byron John, Sir (Colliery Owner)

75P

Eiluned Lewis And The Railway Bridge (Newton,

Montgomeryshire/Powys)

136-137MP

George Bush 1810 – 1841

154-155P, 215

Geotge Bush And The Taff Vale Railway

155

Joseph Jenkins And The Manchester & Milford Railway

133-136, 167

Recollections Of A Cambrian Railwayman (John Gwilt)

195-199P

Taff Vale Railway Organisation In 1841

138-142DM

The Barry Bit: Boot Money On The Barry

24

|                                                                                                  |                       |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------|
| The Barry Railway's Management Circa 1906 And 1907: Part 2 and Part 3 (see Vol VI/10)            | 14-17P, 33-37MP       |
| The Last Days Of The Alexandra, (Newport & South Wales) Docks & Railway (T.R. Pearson, Engineer) | 142 168               |
| More Tales From Porthkerry (H.G Lewis Private Owner Wagon Entrepreneur)                          | 69-70                 |
| Thomas D A, Viscount Merthyr (Colliery Owner)                                                    | 75P                   |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR (Staff Etc.)                                                       | 171-174MP             |
| US Locomotives In South Wales (Eric Montford)                                                    | 168                   |
| Watkin In Wales (Sir Edward Watkin)                                                              | 160, 192              |
| Yockney Civil And Railway Engineering Dynasty                                                    | 219-225P              |
| Plateways And Tram Roads                                                                  |                       |
| Rumney Railway Notice Of Conversion To Edge-Rail (1854)                                          | 240P                  |
| Port Talbot Railway/Port Talbot Points                                                    |                       |
| See Railway Companies                                                                            |                       |
| Privatisation, Train Operating, Franchises And Open Access (1997 To Date)                 |                       |
| The Failure Of The First Open Access Passenger Service In Wales (Wrexham & Shropshire Railway)   | 227-230               |
| Transport For Wales Class 231 Diesel Electric                                                    | 169P                  |
| Projected Railways                                                                               |                       |
| London & South Wales Railway                                                                     | 219-225MP             |
| R                                                                                         |                       |
| Railtours                                                                                 |                       |
| See Excursions And Other Special Workings                                                        |                       |
| Railway Companies Pre-1948                                                                |                       |
| Alexandra (Newport & South Wales) Docks & Railway                                                |                       |
| The Last Days Of The Alexandra, (Newport & South Wales) Docks & Railway                          | 142 168               |
| Barry Railway                                                                                    |                       |
| A Motor Car Mystery (The Barry Bit)                                                              | 74P and 90            |
| Americans At Duffryn Isaf: A Forgotten Wartime Story (Inc. former Barry Railway history)         | 183-189MP, 215-216    |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                         | 152-153P              |
| Barry Railway D Class 0-8-0                                                                      | 71P                   |
| Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation                                                   | 25P, 27-32MP,, 70 215 |
| The Barry Bit: Boot Money On The Barry                                                           | 24                    |
| The Barry Bit: Commuting To The Rhondda?                                                         | 165                   |
| The Barry Bit: Motor Car Service                                                                 | 143                   |
| The Barry Bit: Taff Wells Viaduct                                                                | 97P                   |
| The Barry Bit: An Unlikely Liaison (1908 running powers talks with Rhymney Railway)              | 190                   |
| The Barry Railway's Management Circa 1906 And 1907 Part 2 and Part 3 (see Vol VI/10)             | 14-17P, 33-37MP       |
| The Birth, Life And Death Of Barry Junction (B & M)                                              | 206-208P. 240         |
| Unveiling The Barry War Memorial 31 October 1922                                                 | 236-237P              |
| Brecon &amp; Merthyr Railway                                                              |                       |
| A Brecon & Methyr Invoice Survivor (Dowlais Iron Co)                                             | 68P, 96, 120          |
| Biographical Notes On The Brecon & Merthyr Locomotive                                            | 59-61P                |
| B & M Notes: No More Sunday Trains And A Problem Platform (Pontsara 1868)                        | 226                   |
| Rumney Railway Notice Of Conversion To Edge-Rail (1854)                                          | 240P                  |
| Burry Port &amp; Gwendraeth Valley Railway                                                |                       |
| Burry Port & Gwendraeth Valley Railway                                                           | 70-71D                |
| No 6 Gwendraeth                                                                           |                       |
| Cambrian Railways                                                                         |                       |

|                                                                                                     |                         |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| Cambrian Railways 15 Ton Wagons                                                                     | 67D and 72              |
| Cambrian Railways 2-4-0T Small Side Tank Class                                                      | 164DP                   |
| Cambrian Railways Loco Coal In 1904                                                                 | 22-24P                  |
| Eiluned Lewis And The Railway Bridge (Newton, Montgomeryshire/Powys)                                | 136-137MP               |
| Just The Ticket (Cambrian Railways 1899                                                             | 47                      |
| Royal Visit To Wales In 1896                                                                        | 72                      |
| Pwllheli West Frame Box                                                                             | 193P and 216P           |
| The Cambrian And The 1911 Investiture                                                               | 180-181P                |
| The Oswestry, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway                                                        | 166-167                 |
| The Wrexham, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway                                                         | 121P, 123-135MP 190     |
| Three Royal Journeys (Aberystwyth 1896)                                                             | 201-202P                |
| Cardiff Railway                                                                              |                         |
| Cardiff Railway Class 14 Locomotives As Built And As Rebuilt By The GWR                             | 12-13D                  |
| Unfortunate Accidents (Cardiff Railway)                                                             | 230                     |
| We Don't Want Your Docks (Cardiff Railway And Cardiff Cardiff City Council,1906)                    | 240                     |
| Dare Valley Railway (GWR)                                                                    |                         |
| The Dare Valley And Gamelynn Viaducts                                                               | 62-66 144               |
| Glyn Valley Tramway                                                                                 |                         |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                                            | 152-153P                |
| Denbeigh, Ruthen &amp; Corwen Railway (Later LNWR)                                           |                         |
| The Arrival Of The Railway In Corwen (see Vol V/6)                                                  | 166 191-192             |
| Great Central Railway (See Also Wrexham, Mold And Connah's Quay Railway)                     |                         |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                                 | 99-111MP, 144, 168, 190 |
| Watkin In Wales (Sir Edward Watkin)                                                                 | 160 192                 |
| W M & CQ R Locomotive No 3                                                                          | 203-204D                |
| Great Western Railway                                                                        |                         |
| A Months Passengers At Newton (Montgomeryshire 1947)                                                | 143                     |
| A Mysterious Locomotive (Cardiff General pre-1939)                                                  | 24P, 48                 |
| A note on the Plas Madoc branch                                                                     | 3-5 M                   |
| Americans At Duffryn Isaf: A Forgotten Wartime Story (US Army Locomotives Store)                    | 183-189MP 215 216       |
| Brymbo Area                                                                                         | 190                     |
| Cambrian Coast Steam (GWR period)                                                                   | 178-179P 216            |
| Cardiff Railway Class 14 Locomotives As Built And As Rebuilt By The GWR                             | 12-13D                  |
| Coal For Milford Haven                                                                              | 51-58MP                 |
| Cymmer Viaduct (circa 1940-1941)                                                                    |                         |
| Don't You Know There's A War On (Severn Tunnel Junction WW2)                                        | 234-235P                |
| Fernhill Collieries Ltd And The Great Western Railway 1924-1930: Parts 1 and 2                      | 168                     |
|                                                                                                     | 75-81MP and 114-119P    |
| Introducing The GWR Motor Economic System Of Maintenance Between Ynysygeinon Jct And Brecon Station | 39-42MP                 |
| Life After Death For Welsh And GWR Wagons (docks internal use)                                      | 231-234P                |
| More On Marchwiell (see Vol VI/10)                                                                  | 38D and 48P             |
| Newton Station And Ron Jones                                                                        | 111-113P 167-168        |
| Return To Marchwiell                                                                                | 88-90MP                 |
| Services Between The TVR And GWR In Cardiff (see Vol VI/8)                                          | 48                      |
| Taff Wells Viaduct                                                                                  | 97P                     |
| Tail Traffic: Yet More On Marchwiell                                                                | 143-144                 |
| The 1930s Rebuilding Of Cardiff General Station                                                     | 1-32SDMP                |
| The Birth, Life And Death Of Barry Junction (B & M)                                                 | 206-208P, 240           |
| The Dare Valley And Gamelynn Viaducts                                                               | 62-66MP, 144            |
| The Line: Passenger Services On The Dare Valley Branch                                              | 82-88P, 215-216         |
| The Oswestry, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway                                                        | 166-167                 |

|                                                                                     |                            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| The Wrexham, Ellesmere & Whitchurch Railway                                         | 121, 123-135MP190      |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                 | 99-111MP, 144, 168         |
| Unveiling The Barry War Memorial 31 October 1922                                    | 236-237P                   |
| USATC S160 In Bridgend Area 1943-1944                                               | 49P                        |
| When Bala Had A Railway                                                             | 175-177P 216               |
| Great Western &amp; Rhymney Railways Joint Railway                           |                            |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR                                                       | 171-174MP                  |
| London &amp; North Eastern Railway                                           |                            |
| Brynbo Area                                                                         | 190                        |
| London &amp; North Western Railway                                           |                            |
| The LNWR Route To Swansea                                                           | 1-32SEMP                   |
| The Arrival Of The Railway In Corwen (see Vol V/6)                                  | 166 191-192                |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                 | 99-111MP, 144, 168,190 |
| Water For London From Wales                                                         | 18-21MP                    |
| London, Midland &amp; Scottish Railway                                       |                            |
| Brymbo Area                                                                         | 190                        |
| The LNWR Route To Swansea                                                           | 1-32SEMP                   |
| Manchester &amp; Milford Railway                                             |                            |
| Joseph Jenkins And The Manchester & Milford Railway                                 | 133-136, 167               |
| Neath &amp; Brecon Railway                                                   |                            |
| Watkin In Wales (Sir Edward Watkin)                                                 | 160, 192                   |
| Port Talbot Railway                                                          |                            |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                            | 152-153P                   |
| Observations As To New Railways On The                                              |                            |
| Port Talbot Estate By T.M. Franklin                                                 | 226                        |
| Port Talbot Railway 10 Ton Three Plank Open Wagons                                  | 47D                        |
| Rhondda &amp; Swansea Bay Railway                                            |                            |
| Yockney Family Involvement                                                          | 219-225P                   |
| Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway 10 Ton Three Plank Open Wagon                         | 47D                        |
| Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway Handbills                                             | 200P                       |
| Rhymney Railway                                                              |                            |
| A Rhymney Train At Pontlottyn                                                       | 165P                       |
| Rhymeny Jottings: Railway Accident Near Caerphilly (1884)                           | 167                        |
| Rhymney Railway 15 Ton Mineral Wagon Model                                          | 72P                        |
| Rhymney Railway Locomotive Shed at Taff Wells                                       | 1P                         |
| The Cylla Branch Revisited (See Also Vol V/4)                                       | 162-164M                   |
| South Wales Mineral Railway                                                  |                            |
| Cymmer Viaduct                                                                      | 168                        |
| Taff Vale Railway                                                            |                            |
| A Matter Of Gauge                                                                   | 179                        |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Early TVR))                                          | 152-153P                   |
| George Bush And The Taff Vale Railway                                               | 155                        |
| On From Cowbridge To Aberthaw                                                       | 58, 120                    |
| Services Between The TVR And                                                        |                            |
| The GWR In Cardiff (see Vol VI/8)                                                   | 48                         |
| Taff Vale Railway Organisation In 1841                                              | 138-142DM                  |
| The TVR A Smoke Free Zone ?                                                         | 47                         |
| Vale of Neath Railway                                                        |                            |
| The Dare Valley And Gamelynn Viaducts                                               | 62-66                      |
| Vale Of Neath Vicissitudes                                                          | 160-161                    |
| Rhymney Railway                                                              |                            |
| See Railway Companies                                                               |                            |
| Welsh Highland Railway                                                       |                            |
| American Locomotives In Wales (Pre-1943)                                            | 152-153P                   |
| Wrexham Mold &amp; Connah's Quay Railway(See Also Great Central Railway) |                            |
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                 | 99-111MP, 144,168, 190 |
| Watkin In Wales (Sir Edward Watkin)                                                 | 160, 192                   |
| W M & CQ R Locomotive No 3                                                          | 203-204D                   |
| Wrexham &amp; Minerva Joint Railway (GWR &amp; LNWR)                         |                            |

|                                                                                                        |                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Two Trips To Brymbo                                                                                    | 99-111MP, 144,168, 190       |
| Railway Wagons                                                                                  |                                  |
| See Rolling Stock                                                                                      |                                  |
| Rhondda & Swansea Bay Railway                                                                          |                                  |
| See Railway Companies                                                                                  |                                  |
| Rhymney Jottings                                                                                |                                  |
| See Author Index                                                                                       |                                  |
| Rhymney Railway                                                                                 |                                  |
| See Railway Companies                                                                                  |                                  |
| Rolling Stock Departmental                                                                      |                                  |
| Cambrian Railways Loco Coal In 1904                                                                    | 22-24P                           |
| Rolling Stock Goods And Mineral (Private Owner)                                                 |                                  |
| Baldwins Ltd 20T Iron Ore Wagon                                                                        | 109P                             |
| Dowlais Iron Co 7 ton wagon                                                                            | 68P                              |
| Coal For Milford Haven (Inc. Wagons)                                                                   | 51-58MP                          |
| Fernhill Collieries Ltd 12T Wagons                                                                     | 80P                              |
| Ministry of Munitions 20T Home Iron Ore Wagon                                                          | 108P                             |
| More Tales From Porthkerry (H.G. Lewis Private Owner Wagon Entrepreneur)                               | 69-70                            |
| Rolling Stock Goods And Mineral (Railway Owned)                                                 |                                  |
| Cambrian Railways 15 Ton Wagons                                                                        | 67D and 72                       |
| The LNWR Route To Swansea                                                                              | 1-32SEMP                         |
| Life After Death For Welsh And GWR Wagons (Docks Internal Use)                                         | 231-234P                         |
| Rhymney Railway 15 Ton Mineral Wagon Model                                                             | 72P                              |
| Rolling Stock Passenger Class Inc. Rail Motors)                                                 |                                  |
| A Motor Car Mystery                                                                                    | 74P and 90                       |
| A Rhymney Train At Pontlottyn                                                                          | 165P                             |
| The Failure Of The First Open Access Passenger Service In Wales(Wrexham & Shropshire Railway)      | 227-230                          |
| The Line: Passenger Services On The Dare ValleyBranch (GWR)                                        | 82-88MP, 215-21647       |
| The TVR A Smoke Free Zone ?                                                                            |                                  |
| Recollections And Reminiscences                                                                 |                                  |
| A Few Trips To Tintern                                                                                 | 42-47MP                          |
| Newton Station And Ron Jones                                                                           | 111-113P 167-168195-199P |
| Recollections Of A Cambrian Railwayman (John Gwilt)                                                    | 135                              |
| Traffic At Dowais (British Railways era)                                                               | 17                               |
| Working On The Railway In The 1950s (Bridgend)                                                         |                                  |
| Rhondda &amp; Swansea Bay Railway                                                               |                                  |
| See Railway Companies                                                                                  |                                  |
| Royal Journeys And Visits                                                                       |                                  |
| Royal Visit To Wales In 1896 (CambrianRailways)                                                    | 72                               |
| Royal Train At Newton (Powys) 22 June 1977                                                             | 122P                             |
| The Cambrian And The 1911 Investiture                                                                  | 180-181P                         |
| Three Royal Journeys (Aberystwyth 1896, Cardiff 1924and Llanrindod 1953)                           | 201-202P                         |
| S                                                                                               |                                  |
| Signals And Tracks                                                                              |                                  |
| Introducing The GWR Motor Economic System Of MaintenanceBetween Ynysygeinon Jct And Brecon Station | 39-42MP                          |
| More On Marchwiel (see Vol VI/10)                                                                      | 38D and 48P                      |
| Pwllheli West Frame Box                                                                                | 193P and 216P                    |
| Rediscovering The Porthkerry Viaduct Deviation                                                         | 25P, 27-32MP,70, 215         |
| Return To Marchwiel                                                                                    | 88-90MP                          |
| Rumney Railway Notice Of Conversion To Edge-Rail (1854)                                                | 240                              |
| Severn Tunnel Junction WW2                                                                             | 178-179P 216                     |
| Taff Vale Viaduct Over The GWR (Cardiff)                                                               | 72                               |

|                                                        |                               |
|--------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| The 1930s Rebuilding Of Cardiff General Station        | 1-32SDMP                      |
| The Birth, Life And Death Of Barry Junction(B & M) | 206-208P 240                  |
| Yet More On Marchwiel                                  | 143-144                       |
| Stations And Halts                              |                               |
| Balek Lion Crossing Halt                               | 82-88MP                       |
| Bridgend                                               | 17                            |
| Brecon                                                 | 39-42P                        |
| Cardiff Central                                        | 1-32SDMP                      |
| Central Wales Line Stations                            | 1-32SEMP                      |
| Cwmaman Crossing Halt                                  | 82-88MP                       |
| Marchwiel                                              | 38D, 48, 89-92MP, 143-144 |
| Newtown (Powys)                                        | 111-113P, 143                 |
| Severn Tunnel Junction                                 | 178-179P 216                  |
| Pontsara                                               | 226                           |
| Pontlottyn                                             | 165P                          |
| Troedyrhiw Motor Halt                                  | 171-174MP                     |
| Welshpool                                              | 195-199                       |

T

Taff Vale Railway

See Railway Companies

Taff Vale Titbits

See Author Index

Tail Traffic (Readers Letters)

See Author Index

The Barry Bit

See Author Index

xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

Tickets And Fares

A Months Passengers At Newton (Montgomeryshire 1947)

Just The Ticket (Cambrian Railways 1899)

47

Train Services

See Also Excursions And Special Workings Also Royal Journeys And Visits

A Rhymney Train At Pontlottyn 165P

A Motor Car Mystery (The Barry Bit) 74P and 90

Going Out By Train (Rhondda & Swansea Bay

Railway handbills) 200P

Fernhill Collieries Ltd And The Great Western

Railway 1924-1930:

In Dificult Times Parts 1 and 2 75-81MP , xxxxx

Services Between The TVR And GWR, Cardiff 48

Last Train From Brymbo 147-150P

The Barry Bit: Commuting To The Rhondda 165

The GWR In Cardiff (see also Vol vi/8)

The 1930s Rebuilding Of Cardiff General Station 1-32SDMP

The GWR In Cardiff (see also Vol vi/8)

The Line: Passenger Services On The Dare Valley

Branch (GWR) 82-88MP 215-216

Troedyrhiw Motor Halt GW & RR 171-174MP

The Barry Bit

See Author Index

Tunnels

The LNWR Route To Swansea 1-32SEMP

U

United States Army Transportation Corps

Americans At Duffryn Isaf: A Forgotten

Wartime Story (US Army Locomotives In Store) 183-189MP 215, 216

Newport Ebbw Junction GWR Wednesday 15

March 1944 (US Army locomotive shops) 209-215P 240

|                                       |         |
|---------------------------------------|---------|
| US Locomotives In South Wales         | 168     |
| USATC S160 In Bridgend Area 1943-1944 | 49P, 96 |

W

Wagons Railway

See Rolling Stock – Private Or Railway Owned

Wrexham & Minerva Joint Railway (GWR & LNWR)

See Railway Companies

Wrexham, Mold & Connah’s Quay Railway

See Railway Companies